* The total population of the Urban Sanitary Districts in this table will be found to differ slightly from that given in other parts of the Report, owing to the population of the extended District of Stalybridge (Div. VIII.) having been included here, although the Act by which it was extended did not come into operation until shortly after the day of the Census.

† In a few cases, persons described as "Married" were stated to be under 15 years of age. These have been classed with married persons aged "15 and under 20 years."

NOTE.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed; e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more Counties are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division II., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

† Two of these Males were stated to be 100 years of age, one 101, one 102, and two 103 years of age. Eight of these Females were stated to be 100 years of age, one 102, one 103, and one 105 years of age.

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more Counties are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division III., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

† Four of these Females were stated to be 100, and one 101 years of age.

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more Counties, are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District, or the greater part of the population, is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division IV., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the Number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

† Two of these Males were stated to be 100, two 101, and one 111 years of age. One of these Females was stated to be 103, and one 105 years of age.

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more Counties are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division V., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

† One of these Males was stated to be 100 and one 104 years of age. Two of these Females were stated to be 100, two 102, one 103, and one 104 years of age.

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more Counties are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division VI., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the number of Children at each year of age under 5, see Table 4.

† These three Males were stated to be each 100 years of age. Nine of these Females were stated to be 100 years of age, two 101, two 102, two 103, one 104, one 105, and one 106 years of age.

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more Counties are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division VII., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

† Two of these Males were stated to be 101 and one 102 years of age. Three of these Females were stated to be 100, and one 102 years of age.

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more counties are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division VIII., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

† Each of these Males was stated to be 100 years of age. Two of these Females were stated to be 100 years of age, two 101, one 104, one 105, and one 106 years of age.

Note.—For the Parishes comprised in each Urban Sanitary District, see Vol. II., Division VIII., Table 5.

* The Urban Sanitary District of Stalybridge was extended by Act 44 & 45 Vict. c. 191, and embraces the Urban Sanitary District of Staley, dissolved by the same Act, and a portion of the Rural Sanitary District of Ashton under Lyne. Although this Act did not come into operation until 11th August 1881, the figures given in this Table for Ashton under Lyne (Rural) and for Stalybridge (Urban) relate to the areas of those districts as then altered.

NOTE.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance: or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—The Registration Ridings of Yorkshire consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more Ridings are included in that Registration Riding in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of the Registration Ridings, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of the Ridings proper. For such differences in Division IX., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the Number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

† One of these Males was stated to be 100, one 101, and one 103 years of age. Four of these Females were stated to be 100, and two 101 years of age.

Note.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more counties, are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District, or the greater part of the population, is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties. For such differences in Division X., see Vol. II., Table 11.

* For the number of Children at each Year of Age under 5, see Table 4.

NOTE.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."

Note.—Registration Counties consist of groups of Registration Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Registration Districts which extend into two or more counties are included in that Registration County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of counties. For such differences in Division XI., see Vol. II., Table 11.

NOTE.—Persons returned as engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to the one that appeared to be of most importance; or, if there was no difference in this respect, to the one first given by the person in his or her return. In some cases special rules have been followed: e.g., "Clergyman and Schoolmaster" in combination has always been referred to "Schoolmaster"; a Member of Parliament or Peer engaged in any branch of commerce or industry has always been referred to this latter, not to "Peer, M.P."

The numbers returned under any heading include Labourers, Apprentices, and Assistants, as well as Masters, but not Clerks, Messengers, Errand boys, Porters, or Watchmen, for which occupations there are special headings. Civil, Military, and Naval Clerks, Law, Bank, Insurance, and Railway Clerks, and Government and Railway Porters, are, however, exceptions to this rule. Many young persons, being Apprentices or Assistants, have therefore been referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows or orphans carrying on the business of their deceased husbands or fathers, will sometimes be found under occupations commonly followed by men only.

Persons returned as retired from any business have not been referred to that business. Inmates of workhouses have been referred to their trades, unless their age or infirmities showed that they were past work. But persons who might be supposed to be only temporarily separated from their usual employment, such as Prisoners, and Patients in General Hospitals, have been classed under their usual occupations.

In some cases, for convenience of space, the male designation, e.g., "Schoolmaster," alone is given, instead of "Schoolmaster, Schoolmistress."
